

Hercules Commercial Front Loader

An industry standard for over 40 years, the Hercules front loader is a durable and dependable machine that combines the best of today's technology with a common sense approach to user controls and serviceability. The result is a hard-working commercial vehicle that spends more time on the route and less time in the shop.

Proven Technology with Years of Experience

An industry standard for over 40 years, the Hercules front loader is a durable and dependable machine that combines the best of today's technology with a common sense approach to user controls and serviceability. The result is a hard-working commercial vehicle that spends more time on the route and less time in the shop.

Download the PDF

- Available Sizes: 35, 37, 40, 44 Cubic Yard Body Capacities
- Exclusive Powder Coat Paint Finish
- Easy to Operate and Maintain
- Smart Steel Construction
- Intelligent Hydraulic Routing
- Superior Gladiator® Pack / Eject Cylinder
- Integrated Body / Chassis (AutoCar WX & ACX)
- Can also be used as residential unit, using manual-load containers such as those available from Bayne and Perkins.